Show HN: View filterable static time tables and more - jchrisa ===== jchrisa Hi everyone! Timetables.co.uk is a tool to view timetables for schools, colleges, universities and other educational institutions. It shows the latest time tables for over 6000 locations in the UK, so you can search quickly and easily for the latest timetables for your children's schools. The site also includes a calendar for schools to plan their timetables. I created it as I needed to plan my own and it became my main tool for planning. I've been working on this site for over a year, and hope it will be useful to you too.

Gustav von Kahr (artist) Gustav von Kahr (baptised 13 February 1795, Nuremberg - 1 October 1876, Nuremberg) was a German artist. Life and work He began his art education in the school of his uncle, Christian Rauch (1755-1806). Following military service in the Hussar Corps, he also trained as a cavalry officer. He had his first exhibition in Nuremberg in 1821. He worked for the potter Franz Weber until 1826, and he also stayed in Paris, where he became a pupil of the classical painter Jean-Baptiste Isabey. He returned to Nuremberg and in 1830 he was named a member of the Academy of Fine Arts. Much of his early work (sport, genre painting, and historical painting) is in the Romantic tradition. He is better known for his German landscape paintings (particularly of his native city of Nuremberg and the surrounding area), en plein air (outdoors) scenes, and paintings of Germanic myths, legends, and history. After 1850, he concentrated increasingly on depictions of nature and ethnic mythology, but he continued to paint landscapes.
